

Survey Results: Actions Being Taken

Actions Being Taken

(n=11 cities reporting)

Survey Results: Biggest Challenges to Cities

Prince George, Canada:	Unusual insects devastate logging industry.
Changchun, China:	Drought impacting agriculture, economy.
Harbin, China:	Drought impacting agriculture, economy.
Jiamusi, China:	Reducing greenhouse gas emissions, development of central heating.
Nuuk, Greenland:	Geographic remoteness requires shipping of many goods.
Aomori, Japan:	Raising awareness of human impacts on global climate change.
Sapporo, Japan:	Facilitating initiatives between citizens and businesses at local level.
Hwacheon, Korea:	Drought and unseasonal torrential downpours interrupt crop planting.
Taebaek, Korea:	Warmer temperatures cause increased energy use for air conditioning.
Tromso, Norway:	Impact on marine ecosystem; potential for catastrophic weather events.
Anchorage, USA:	Drier climate increases susceptibility to wildfires and changes flora.

Anchorage concern: Fire danger

Anchorage Hillside

Anchorage Hillside, spruce beetle kill

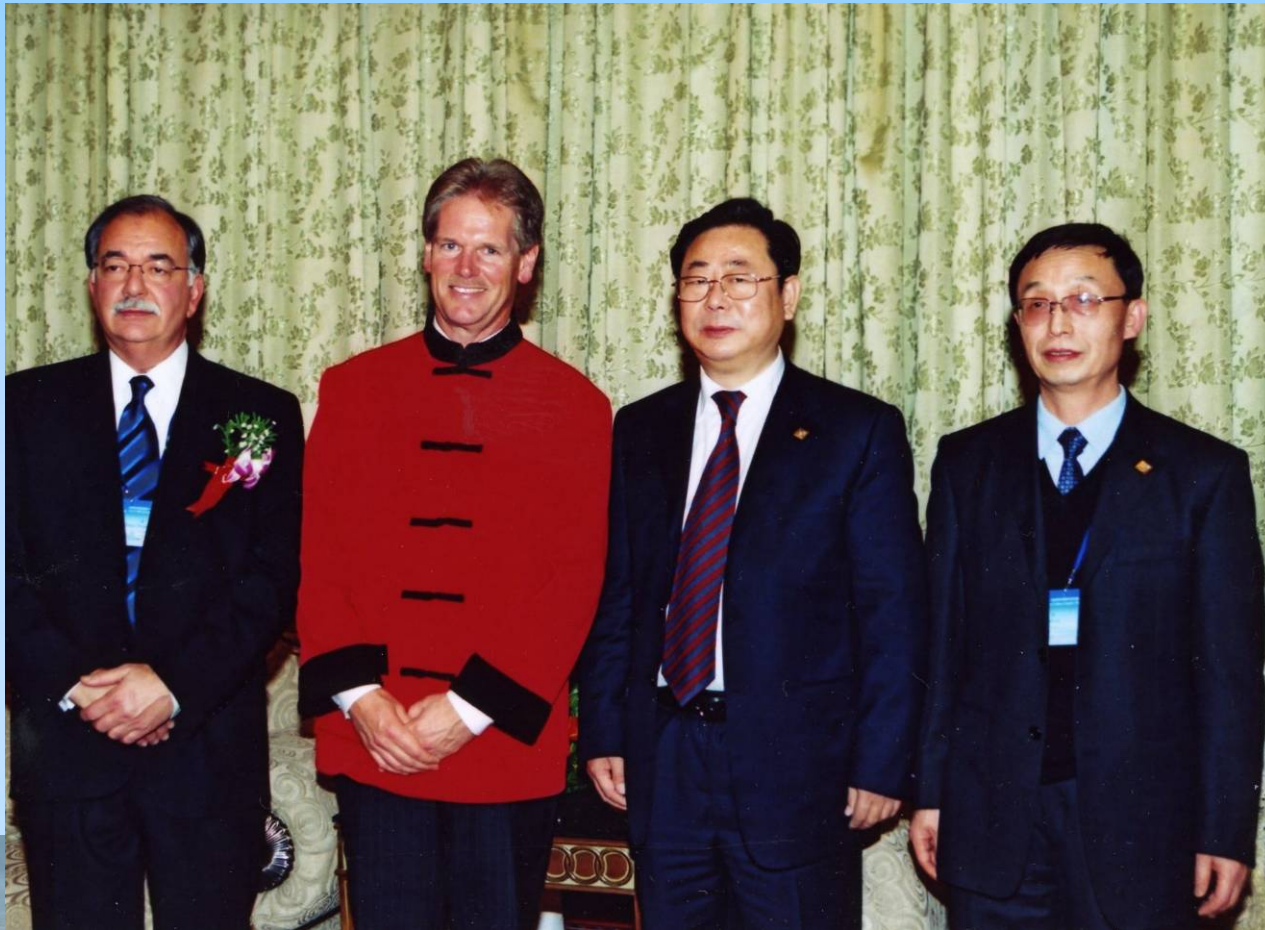

21 5:00 PM
Big Su fire July 2007

Winter Cities are responding aggressively to Climate Change

Success means working together

Thank you

