Pyeonghwanuri Cruise

The blue waterway to the Peace Dam lets you relax, and relieves and heals your exhausted body and mind. The Pyeonghwanuri Cruise will be a beautiful journey enabling you to keep the sunset scenery in your memory.

The Pyeonghwanuri Cruise plies between Paroho Lake and the Peace Dam, a section of about 23km. The Pyeonghwanuri Cruise weighs about 50t, has 42 seats, with a top speed of over 22 knots.

The Pyeonghwanuri Cruise takes about 90 minutes.

The Pyeonghwanuri Cruise enables appreciation of 'Hambbyeomgil' from Sudong Branch School to Moil Branch School on Paroho Lake, presenting a magnificent view of swaying blue light as if a broad ocean.

At Eco School, you can fully enjoy the clean nature of Hwacheon and Bisugumi, the clean district prohibiting the access of vehicles.

When the Pyeonghwanuri Cruise starts operation, its itinerary will be a key route for DMZ tours for hundreds of thousands of tourists annually by connecting the land route, the Peace Dam, and World Peace Bell Park through water transportation and the Baegamsan Cable Car.

Baegamsan Cable Car

The Baegamsan Cable Car in Hwacheon is on the Ecology, Peace, and Security Tourism Belt, including the Peace Dam and the DMZ, the northern district of the Civilian Control Line, which prohibited public access for a long time. As the outpost for peaceful unification, where everyone can feel the native breath of nature and the winds of peace, the Baegamsan Cable Car is the longest shuttle cableway in Korea at 2.12km. The Observatory is at the top, 1,178m above sea level, the highest point in Korea. Baegamsan Mountain is the only place in Korea enabling simultaneous views of the Peace Dam to the south, and Imnam Dam and Geumgangsan Mountain to the north. In particular, autumn leaves and snowy mountains in the winter are magnificent views beyond description.

On the way to the Observatory in the Eco Learning Center, you can observe Yanguidae Wetland formed by the Peace Dam. Make pleasant memories taking a rest from a busy life, fully appreciating the beauty of unpolluted and clean nature.

Closing : Every Mondays. If Monday is a public holiday, the first weekday after public holidays

Business Hours : Summer season(Mar.-Oct.) 09:00~17:00
